

Knights of Columbus

Illinois State Council

Inviting young adult men into our order

Why should someone in their 20s and 30s join the Knights of Columbus? As it turns out, participating actively at this transitional life stage is an excellent way to make lifelong friends who share your faith and values, become a part of your community and to build a professional and social network.

Members also have access to unique benefits and formational resources.

Resources

Councils can visit www.IllinoisKnights.org for online tools to help invite young men and young families to be part of the Knights of Columbus. This includes Catholic content, resources for growing families and links to various helpful social media sites.

College Councils

During 2018-2019, the Illinois membership team will travel around the state to consult with K of C college councils, creating and growing their membership, but also inviting graduating seniors into further involvement as they begin their families and careers.

Young Adult Chapters

A young adult chapter is a joint venture between the councils, state Supreme, designed to respond to the unique needs of young adult members. Through chapters, young Knights receive support and encouragement to continue active involvement after graduation.
