

Members of Fr. Thomas Carmody Council 6498 of Normal, Illinois attended the annual Roe v. Wade prayer service held at the old county court house in downtown Bloomington, IL. This year's guest speaker was council member Deacon Mark Cleary (center of picture). There were nearly 100 people from the community in attendance, including members of other local councils.